

Directors & Officers

DUAL provides directors and officers (D&O) insurance for legal costs and damages incurred as a result of allegations of misconduct.

We protect employees in a variety of leadership roles, including directors, managers and supervisory boards.

We have a comprehensive range of financial lines products, and, as one of Lloyd's largest coverholders, we can place risks directly on the Lloyd's syndicate license, where required.

We're one of the D&O market leaders around the world, with an especially strong presence in Europe, South America, Asia and the Middle East.
